Customer Reviews

This is a wonderful collection of sephardic dessert and pastry recipes. It is also a cultural glimpse into the language of sephardic spain. You can almost hear the recipes being whispered in your ear. I tried 20 of the recipes, and they work too.

The book arrived on time and in good shape. There were handwritten notes and recipes in the front of the book and the rear of the book...I thought I had purchased a new copy but I have no problem with personalization. The book has long sought recipes which I remember my grandmother preparing and I am thrilled to have such a well written book.

This is a great book if you speak spanish, the recipes are delicious, and the photographs are great also.
