Customer Reviews

Empezando porque ninguno de los crucigramas que hay en el interior del libro es como el que sugiere la portada, le compr? este libro de regalo a mi padre quien es amante de los crucigramas y fue una gran decepcion. Adem?s, tiene muchas preguntas relativas a la cultura e historia de M?xico, asi que los que no somos mejicanos o conocemos de este pais, pues no nos v? a ir muy bien, sobre todo porque no son preguntas gen?ricas sino bien especificas del pais. Sinceramente no lo recomiendo a aquellas personas que saben y son amantes de los crucigramas.

The cover suggests that these are conventional crossword puzzles. Actually, each page has perhaps twenty words in a grid that is 90% black squares. Understandably, it takes a greater knowledge of the language to have many interlocking words, but this is silly. In addition, the words don't seem chosen for any particular purpose in learning Spanish. For example, one clue written in Spanish contains the words Shirley McClaine and _____ La Douce. Great for people who remember the old movie with a French title, but filling in IRMA doesn't seem all that helpful for any likely audience.

I was disappointed in this book because, although the picture on the cover looked more crossword style, the puzzles were all crucigram style. The questions were very hard and several were related to Mexico, which I know little about.

Like my title suggests: it is meant for Mexicans and people that completely know the Mexican idioms and culture, so if you are not that versed in Mexican lingo, you won't enjoy this. Furthermore, the author translates American names such as "Little Richard" and the answer has to be written in Spanish. The Puzzles are NOTHING LIKE the traditional puzzle, or the one on the cover. One more thing: This is NOT for Spanish language learners. This is for native Spanish speakers and mostly like I said before: Mexicans. Very disappointing. Spanish: Este libro es mayormente para Mexicanos y personas que hablan el argot Mexicano y conocen la cultura Mexicana intimamente. Los demas no lo podran hacer. Los crucigramas no son los tradicionales o como se pinta en la portada. Este libro es una total decepcion.

He visto críticas negativas debido a que este libro de crucigramas emplea palabras encontradas principalmente en el español mexicano. En mi caso, o mejor dicho en el de mi madre para quien lo compré, eso fue definitivamente un punto a favor. En efecto está hecho para hispanoparlantes mexicanos, y siendo eso lo que es mi madre, pues le parecía perfecto.

I was very disappointed after many attempts to complete the cross-word puzzles. The Spanish being used is Mexican Spanish. I am Cuban and my ancestors are from Spain. I would not have bought this book had I known it was not authentic Spanish. Perhaps you can send me a cross-word puzzle that would meet my needs. Thanks Mayte

This is not a crossword as I expected. It is a sort of puzzle in which a few words cross. Do not recommend it except for learning vocabulary.

This book requires that the puzzle user know more Spanish than I do. In the case of the first puzzle: Aeronáutica, I know very little about the subject matter. So, I had to look up words in the clue in order to have a try at the answer. I would have liked to know how advanced in the language that the user must be in order to solve the puzzles. I suspect that if I am persistent, I will learn a lot of words and concepts that I don't know now!
