Archie's Weird Mysteries: A BRBTM Report (BRBTM Reports Book 1)

Synopsis

"Things are getting weird in Riverdale!" Archie Comics are an American cultural icon. Who hasn't loved the teenaged, freckle-faced Archie Andrews and his pals? This BRBTV Report takes a look at the 1999-2000 animated TV incarnation, "Archie's Weird Mysteries," a fun twist on the classic lore, with Archie, Betty, Jughead, Veronica and the rest of the gang solving spooky mysteries in Riverdale! This Kindle report includes a magazine-length feature story on the show, with input from a variety of folks including executive producer Robby London; onetime Archie Comic Publications chairman and publisher Michael Silberkleit; and the writer of the accompanying comic book series, Paul Castiglia. You'll also find full episode synopses, credits, and a cast and character guide. With its 2011 update, the report includes photos, which appear in color where available. From the same place you'll find print reference guides to classic TV shows like "Dallas," "Dynasty" and "The Dukes of Hazzard," the BRBTV Reports are not designed to be "books." They're shorter, snappier reads -- and oh-so conveniently electronic -- to celebrate the great TV shows you love!

Customer Reviews

This book was very informative and interesting. It told me all about the Archie's weird mysterious tv series. I think that kids today would've liked this series because it combines everyone's favorite comic characters and had an useful moral at the end of each episode. Definitely worth it!

We were looking for a comic / graphic novel, and this is neither. I wish that had been mentioned on the product page before I purchased .

Never read or bought this book!

Synopsis of all the TV shows, but not so much information about Archie otherwise as I expected.
