Customer Reviews

I read this to my second grade bilingual students and they made an immediate connection with Patricia and her difficulty in reading and how she was bullied by other students because of this difficulty. They definitely felt empathy with her situation. They were then deeply impressed to find out that she is the one who writes children's books.

thank you mr falker is a great book.i've read alot of pp bokk's and loved all of them now i'm reading just plain fancy.in thank you mr falker in the begaining her grandpa puts honey on a book.Thank You Mr Falker is great for understaning parts.if your a techer give this book to your student and let them find the understading of the book.i did and i'm 9.

I gave this to our Middle School Spanish Teacher, to touch his heart for dyslexic students. I am doing the same with the English version!

What an awesome book! Since I'm a teacher, it made me rethink if I'm reaching all my students!

I didn't receive yet but I read all her books. As educator inspire students and teachers
