Customer Reviews

I grew up on this book (and the song based on the story). I bought this for my son who is raising his daughter to be bilingual. My dau-in-law reads to the baby in English, and my son converses and reads to her in Spanish. Simple, clean illustrations to a nice little story.

I find it much easier to find baby books in Spanish than toddler books. I was happy to come across this simple book where my toddler can also "read" along with the story. Great illustrations, limited words (which we like at the toddler stage) and overall a happy "don't-give-up" moral to the story.

I purchased this book for my Spanish classes because of the reviews. To be honest, It is a bit confusing and boring. I don't think is a good book. There are better books with simple concepts like this unfortunately not in Spanish...

I grew up reading this book and loved it and wanted my son to grow up with the story as well. I purchased the Spanish version since we are raising him to be bilingual and he really enjoys it.
